Dancers should dress appropriately: It is important to wear clothing that allows for movement. You also wear comfortable leggings. It's also a good idea to have a water bottle with you. Also, make sure you have extra tights or bobby pins in your dance bag before the first lesson. It is best to bring a healthy snack as well.

You should know what you can expect from your teacher when looking for dance classes. Dance teachers often have their own style. Students can become frustrated if this is the case. Instead, teachers should teach the students the more difficult steps first, so they can get the most repetitions out of them.
